THE STATE LEGISLATURE.

Final Adjournment Still a, Troublesome Question.

Amending the Constitution with the Board Money.

FURTHER BLUNDERS IN THE CHARTER.

Resolutions in Both Houses to Give Cornell a Hearing.

Senate Sweep of the Constitutional Amendments.

The final adjournment is again giving the Assemby a great deal of concern, and the country members who want to go home and attend to their farms are beginning to feel anxious. A few days ago they were at a loss what to do. They were as a house divided against itself, and as a natural consequence, they were unable to agree on any one pelicy as to the adjournment, and had to agree to disagree. However, the lobby have not been overpressing since the one hundred days closed, and

ALL THE LITTLE JOBS pay have not been forthcoming. Under the circumstances the professional bone hunters and those good pious fellows from the backwho would rather their landladies and their washerwomen should be paid by other parties than themselves, provided they can make arrangements to that effect by voting for or against certain measures yet pending, are tonger. It is true that the constitutional amendments have actually been already taken hold of by the Senate, but the determination of the lower House to pack up their duds and go is too strong to be overcome by even the siy dodges of the venera. ble old gentlemen up stairs. In fact, the desire to get away has taken hold, not only of the would be profit gainers, but of all the other members, repub. cans and democrats alike. Mr. Rose, of Lawrence, made the first open move to-day indica-on the subject, and, judging from the way his action was received, it is more than probable that if a caucus of the majority is not held within a day or two to determine what course it is best to pursue in a party sense, he will have the credit of having brought the adjournment fever to a crisis. Mr. Rose's action was simply the offering of a resolution that the adjournment take place on the 23d inst., and that the members reassemble if called by the Governor to reconsider the constitutional amendments. This was offered as a substitute for a resolution reported by the Committee on the Constitutional Amendments that after a certain class of bills had been disposed of in a summary way the House should go to work on the amend-

THE RESOLUTION WAS ADOPTED. whereupon the Speaker decided that the substitute having been adopted by the House, it became a concurrent resolution. Having thus decided, it had to lie over under the rules. It is generally betieved that, notwithstanding the eagerness of the members to get away, the majority will be caurussed into remaining a week after the 23d and have the adjournment take place on the 30th or the 31st inst. Whether this really can be done is just now a question which the leaders are sorely puzzled over. The amendments are the great bugbear, and the Assembly evidently want to place the responsibility of their consideration or non-consideration where it thinks it belongs-with the Governor. The members believe that if the amendments are so important as to require consideration this year so important as to require consideration this year the people can afford to pay for the time occupied an dealing with them.

YET ANOTHER CHARTER BLUNDER.

Another egregious blunder has been discovered in the charter, and yet another supplemental bill is necessary to make another crooked way straight. It appears that, although the charter provides for a Commission or Board of Health, it repeals the Metropolitan Health act, the very one and only one under which they could have any lower to act at all. It will therefore be seen that as matters now stand the Board can really do nothing, colonel Clarke, the Secretary of the Board, came up here to-day and had an act drawn up to cover the defect in the charter as far as the Board is up here to-day and had an act drawn up to cover the defect in the charter as far as the Board is concerned. It was piaced in the hands of the Assembly Committee on Cities, who are now considering the supplemental bill passed by the Senate last week. It is rumored that there are several other blunders in the charter, which will necessitate a few more supplemental bills. No wonder the democrats are laughing in their sleeves at the thickneadness of the majority.

The SENATE BURKYING UP.

The Assembly bill to provide for the payment of the officers, employés and workmen in the Department of Buildings, which was lost some days ago, was taken from the table and carried by a vote of 20 to 1. The bill to establish a Commission of Charitable Correction for the city of New York, returned from the Assembly with an amendment, was agreed to.

A PARK IN THE ADIRONDACKS.

A resolution offered by Mr. Winslow, forbidding the sale by the Land Commissioners of any more wild lands in the Adirondack region, is the precursor of a proposition soon to be introduced to set aside the remaining lands of that wild region as a State Park, for the rearing of the nobler game and the protection of the fountain heads of the nobler streams of the State.

THE SPEER TRAVELLING SIDEWALK BILL was passed in the Senate by a vote of 18 to 3. This is the absurdity in rapid transit which we have referred to frequently before. It is on the plan of a revolving and continuous train of cars to be run on an elevated road above the sidewalk by stationary engines. The route is to be designated by the Common Council. An experimental road is to be erected on State and Whitehall streets and the Bowling Green.

ASSEMBLY RESOLUTION IN THE CORRELL MATTER.
On the reassembling of the House for the evening session Mr. Jacobs occupied the chair, Mr. Cornell taking the floor and asking consent to offer the following:—

Resolved, That, if the Senate concur, Horatio Seymour, of Oneida; Whilam G. Fargo, of Erie, and Lewis G. Morris, of Westchester, are hereby appointed a commission to investigate the affairs of the Cornell University, and for that nurnose are hereby invested with all the power and authority of a legislative committee, authorized to send for persons and papers; said commission is directed to report to the Governor, for transmission to the next Legislature, as to the management and general condition of said university, as to the security and condition of sits funds, as to the management of Erza Cornell in reference to the location and sale of the lands under his contract with the State in behalf of said Cornell University, and generally as to all of the interests and affairs of the said university, and the execution of duties and trusts imposed by the laws of the United States and of the State of New York in relation to the agricultural land grant. In case of a vacancy in said commission, by reason of a declination to serve or otherwise. the Governor is authorized to fill the same by appointment.

On the introduction of a resolution requiring unanimous consent, Mr. McGuire rose and said:

The Constitutional Amendments in the Senate Committee of the Whole-Sweeping Disposal of Them.

ALBANY, May 15-Evening. To-night the Senate again took the constitutional amendments in hand, and went through them all except the third or legislative article, disposing, as far as a Committee of the Whole disposes of anything, of the sections relative to the appointment of a Superintendent of State Prisons in place of the turee inspectors now existing; relative to the appointment by the Governor and Senate of judicial officers, not of record, in cities of over three hundred thousand inhabitants, for terms of four years, to be removed for cause; prohibiting extra compensation to any canal contractor; prohibiting sale or lease of Eric, Oswego, Champlain, Cayuga and Seneca Canals, and that expenditures on the other canals shall not exceed the receipts; providing that the sinking funds shall be kept separately; that no claim shall exceed the receipts; providing that the sinking funds shall be kept separately; that no claim shall be paid which, as between citizens, would be carred; that the Treasurer shall be chosen on joint ballot by the Senate and Assembly; making the Comptroller, Secretary of State, Treasurer and State Engineer Commissioners of the Land Office; substituting a superintendent of public works in place of the Canal Commissioners; giving the Governor and Senate power to fill vacancies; providing that the State shall not loan its credit to private undertakings; that no city, town or county shall bond itself, except for city, town or county shall bond itself, except for city, town or county purposes; providing that no officer with a fixed salary shall receive any additional compensation, no salary to be charged during the existing term of office; providing that members of the Legislature must take oath that they have paid no money to secure election; that cities shall elect a mayor and common council, instead of boards of aldermen, the Mayor to nominate heads of departments, and have a veto power; giving every city exclusive power as to local taxation and expenditures and relating to bribery. All these were adopted without change. At the conclusion THE THIRD ARTICLE, referring to the legislative power, was taken up. The third section, which redistricts the State into eight Senatoral districts, each to choose four Senators, was, on motion of Senator Robertson, of Westchester, stricken out by the following vote:—

There was a hearing before the Governor this evening on the New York Police Justices bill. Dorman B. Eaton delivered a lengthy argument in favor of the bill and Francis Kernan against it.

RUMORS ABOUT VETORS.
Rumors are rife to-night that the Governor intends to veto the Local Prohibition and the West-chester Annexation bills.

THE HELL GATE COLLISION.

The search for the bodies of the victims of the Hope disaster was continued yesterday, but without success.

Mr. Browne, to whose presence of mind the survivors owe their existence, was near where the Hope sunk a greater part of the day doing all in his power to assist those deputed to search for the bodies. It will be remembered that Mr. Browne was first to see the accident and send boats to the distressed orew.

PEACE ON EARTH.

Meeting Last Night at the House of Mr. David Dudley Field-An International Peace Congress-Report of the Rev. James Miles-A Proposed Convention of Autumn.

A meeting was held last evening, convened by East Twenty-first street, for the purpose of listen-ing to a report from the Rev. James B. Miles, of oston, on the results of his late visit to Europe, which was to interest European statesmen and cress for the purpose of promoting the adoption of an international code and the establishment of ardisputes. Among the gentlemen present were Dr. Osgood, Professor Pomroy, Judges Bosworth and T W Shearman.

Mr. Miles, the Corresponding Secretary, in addressing the meeting, said that the host, Mr. Field, had long been greatly interested in the question of international law. No great principles formed a code of international law, and Mr. Field had published the draft of principles for an international had been a wondrous success to the friends of in-ternational peace, and he (the speaker) had been very anxious that this event should be improved and it had been suggested that there should be a Senate of publicists, to be held in the Autumn. It was thought that it would be useless to apply to the government to initiate this meeting of publicists, because it would be likely to excite jealousies. As America was more free from these prejudices than any other country, it had been decided to initiate this movement here. Mr. Miles then spoke at length of the warm welcome he received in England and France, especially in the latter country, where they were saffering from the horrors of recent war. He also spoke of his visit and reception throughout the Continental cities. His experience in England brought him to the conclusion that the solid, respectable, substantial and intelligent people of England were in layor of peace and of the arbitration policy. He attended the great party debate in the House of Commons on the Geneva arbitration, and it was quite interesting to see how all the members, even of the opposition side of the House, were careful in prefacing their speeches by a statement that they were in favor of arbitration. In reference to the meeting of eminent publicists it was greatly encouraged abroad, and it was suggested that it should be held in different countries alternately, it was the opinion of all the eminent men he (the speaker) had seen that the meeting should be in September or earlier in the Autumn, and be held in a city in Europe. They also thought that it would be lar better that the invitation should come from America, because of the prejudices that there were on the Continent as to England in this cided to initiate this movement here. Mr. Miles then come from America, because of the prejudices that there were on the Continent as to England in this matter. After giving some further details the

THE RESOLUTIONS. Which were adopted:—
Resolved. That we have heard with great satisfaction Rev. Mr. Miles' account of his unpressions in Europe in behalf of international justice, and that we express our cordial conviction of the wis one of his principles and the reasonableness of his plaus.
Resolved, That the movements of affairs, the studies of thoughtful men, the tendencies of public opinion, callior a new and earnest consideration of the usages and laws of nations, especially in regard to war, and that the new times demand a new international code, especially in regard to arbitration.

following resolutions, which were adopted:—
Resolved. That in the opinion of this meeting the establishment of an international code, containing among its provisions the recognition of arbitration as the means of settling international disputes, is an object of the highest interest and importance.
Resolved, That, with a view to the formation of such a code, it is expedient that a meeting should be called for consultation upon the best method of preparing it and the most promising means of procuring its adoption.
Resolved, That such a meeting be held on the 23d day of September next, to which publicists from different nations be invited and that a committee be appointed to issue the invitations and make arrangements for the meeting, and that this committee have power to add to their number.

meeting, and that this committee have power to add to their number.
Resolved, That David Dudley Field, Theodore D. Wil-sey, L.L.D. Emery Washburne, William Beach Lawrence and James B. Miles be such committee.
CORRESPONDENCE.
Letters were read by Mr. Field from Professor Clark, of Cambridge (England); George H. Stuart, Philadelphia, and W. B. Lawrence, Newport.
From Mr. Eilhu Burritt a letter was read, in the course of which he says:—

After the meeting the guests were invited by Mr. Field to partake of supper, and the remainder of the evening was spent in pleasant and social intercourse.

Marino Disasters.

SHIP JOHANN WILHELM (Ger), Albrecht, at Boston May 14 from London, had heavy weather, and lost bulwarks and sails.

BARK MARGARET EVANS (Br), at Philadelphia from Amerp, reports:—May 11.8 miles SSE of Townsend's inlet, NJ, saw a quantity of wreck stuff, apparently fast to a sunken vessel, and very dangerous, as it was just awash with the water. with the water.

Schr Francis C Smith, from Elizabethport for Providence, before reported ashore an Goshen Recf, below New London, has been stripped of sails, rigging, &c, and about 40 tons of coal have been taken out. The prospect of getting the vessel affoat is unfavorable, but most of the coal will be saved if the weather is favorable. The F C S halled from New York, registered 125 tons, and was built at Egg Harbor in 1862.

Schr Wx S Sarra, of Gloucester, before reported at Hali fax for repairs, put in 12th (not 13th) lesky; will go on the marine railway.

Schu S A Mondax, in tow of the tug Comet, bound out, collided with the schr Maggie A Fisk, lying in the stream off Alexandria, Va. 13th inst, and carried away the latter's flying jib and jibboom.

The masts of the schr Gen Grant, of Gloucester, which were lost in a gale March 24, were picked up by another vessel owned by the same firm as the Gen Grant, and the tackies and blocks were brought into Gloucester a few days ago.

Miscellaneous. The purser of the steamship Weybosset, from Port au Prince, has our thanks for tavors.

The United States government will replace the tower at Two Lights, Cape Elizabeth, that bears the revolving light, with an iron tower, similar in shape and size to the present one, and to be built by the Portland Machine Works. (It is a state of the st
